

Sioux History and Culture (Native American Library (Library))

Readers take a detailed look at past and present of the Sioux Nation, one of the largest Native American nations. Readers learn about the famous battles between Sioux warriors and American troops, including the Battle of the Little Bighorn. They also explore the various ways a sense of tradition is maintained in the middle of a changing America. Fighting for control of sacred ground and recording their history and ways of life in prominent works of literature are only a few ways they have tried to maintain traditions. Incredible facts about the history of these proud people are accompanied by historical artwork and detailed photographs, creating a reading experience that is captivating and enlightening.
